1. A state of confusion prevails at present in the Ost-CDU. Party schools are temporarily closed because no new directives were established after the dropping of the Christian Realism theme and the Meissen program at the last party conference held in Weimar in September. All conferences of the Presidium of the party, which had been charged with the drafting of new political directives, have been postponed indefinitely. The same applies to the meetings of the Berlin organizations of the party. It was learned that the situation within the LDP was similar.
